

LONDON POLICE SERVICES BOARD POLICY

LPSB Policy: 002

Title: Problem-Oriented Policing

Procedure: Part 3 Chapter O

Approved: May 25, 2000

1. Policy:

It is the policy of the London Police Services Board with respect to problem-oriented policing that the Chief of Police will:

- a) require appropriate supervisors and front-line members to work, where possible, with municipalities, school boards, businesses, community organizations and members of the public to address crime, public disorder and road safety problems;
- b) require appropriate supervisors and front-line members to promote and implement problem-oriented policing initiatives to respond to identified crime, community safety, public disorder and road safety problems, including repeat calls for service and repeat victimization;
- c) ensure that supervisors and front-line members are provided with information and resource material on problem-oriented policing;
- d) promote the use of directed patrol, targeted enforcement and other initiatives to respond to high crime or high occurrence places/areas and serial occurrences;
- e) develop procedures to support the promotion and implementation of problem-oriented policing; and
- f) provide information in the annual report (refer to Appendix A) on the steps taken by the LPS to promote, implement and evaluate problem-oriented policing initiatives.
