

LONDON POLICE SERVICES BOARD POLICY

LPSB Policy: 006

Title: Crime, Call and Public Disorder Analysis

Approved: May 25, 2000

Procedure: Part 3 Chapter Q

Amended: May 21, 2009

1. Policy:

It is the policy of the London Police Services Board with respect to crime, call and public disorder analysis that:

- a) crime, call and public disorder analysis will be provided by the London Police Service by utilizing its own members; and
- b) the Chief of Police will:
 - i) establish systems and procedures for the collection, collation, analysis and dissemination of crime, call, and public disorder data;
 - ii) ensure that members who perform crime, call and public disorder analysis, and persons who assist, have the knowledge, skills and abilities to perform the functions, and have the necessary equipment;
 - iii) promote the use of crime analysis by supervisors to identify areas or issues requiring directed patrol, targeted enforcement, problem-oriented or community-based crime prevention initiatives;
 - iv) report (refer to Appendix A) back to the board on the criteria and process to be used for sharing relevant crime, call and public disorder analysis with municipal council and officials, school boards, community organizations and groups, businesses and members of the public; and
 - v) provide information in the annual report (refer to Appendix A) on crime, calls for service and public disorder patterns, trends and forecasts based on crime, call and public disorder analysis.
